

See Zombie Santa unleash his rabid mutant elves to conquer the Earth and kidnap her children. Only one crack space crew and its handsome captain can stop Santa and foil his evil plot. Will they stop Santa's deranged scientists from turning every child on earth into a lump of coal? Will Zombie Santa be destroyed and Christmas saved? Can you believe Mark has a job?

Mark Lewis Productions presents

A BLACK IRIS FILM
ZOMBIE SANTA
FROM PLANET X

"Don't see this film alone!" -Chris DeStefano
Lonely Hearts Club Journal

"Willard May as Zombie Santa is casting genius!" - Kimber Paschall
Foundation for Recovering Parochial School Graduates Digest

"This film takes the "Christ" out of Christmas" - Hellen Lewis
Righteous Living

"The Make-up effects were spectacular!" - Joanne Sims
Mary Kay Review

"The fifty times oversampling of the digitized 10Hz sub-audible
Foley track has to be felt to be believed!" - Doug Chapin
Shop-Talk Technobabble Weekly

One Screening only! December 18, 1993 7:00 PM

Limited engagement at Mark 'n' Gene's Goode Tyme Theatre

2759 San Carlos Lane in Fabulous Costa Mesa!!

COMING
SOON
TO VIDEO!

Mark Lewis Presents

A Black Iris ♣ Production A Kimber Paschall Film Willard May Gene Anderson "Zombie Santa from Planet X" Pete Dean Erik Smith And Sandy Larkin
Music by Daniel Hayes Edited by Bert Autore Production Designer Jen Deruff Director of Photography Doug Chapin Co-Producer Jeff Motske Executive Producer Rod Lewis
Written By Michael O'Kelley Based upon "Santa's Slay Day" By Kimber Paschall Mark Lewis Produced by Rod and Helen Lewis
Produced by Mark Lewis, Diane McCardle and Aunt Donna
Directed By Kimber Paschall

Ad Campaign designed and Executed Flawlessly By Lasiewski Design Studios

